ANNOUNCING STIMULUS INCENTIVES FOR TRAVEL

In the past several months, we've all been inundated with news of "though economic times." This news is a stressful reality for all of us, creating an even greater need for relaxation and rejuvenation ~ something often accomplished through our much needed vacations.

Vogue Travel is supportive of our clients' concerns, and we're working harder than ever to provide the most creative and budget-conscious travel options available. One such new option we're happy to offer is that of enhanced trip protection insurance. In the unfortunate event of a job loss, Vogue Travel can now offer the option of insurance coverage that will protect the money invested in a vacation should a job loss occur, thereby alleviating some of the understandable hesitation in planning a vacation these days.

It is always our pleasure to help you optimize your travel opportunities, so we are happy to provide you with choices to help ease your mind ~ so that you can move forward with packing your bags for the vacation adventures you deserve!
